Kawasaki, Japan- 20 February 2014- Nippon Automated Cargo and Port Consolidated System, Inc. (NACCS, Inc) has concluded agreement with 18 service providers and set connection to enable overseas filers to file AFR information from abroad to Japan Customs. In addition, NACCS cooperated with service providers to hold seminars and actively promoted the ways and means of filing to overseas.

As a result, today NACCS, Inc announced the total number of overseas seminars reached 77 held in Asia Pacific, EU, and North America and Latin America, excluding seminars in Japan, and the total number of participants directly received presentation from NACCS exceeds 4,800. For the details of overseas seminars, please refer to the attachment.

Since the end of last year, we promoted more sessions in the area we haven't held seminars in the past. The first session in Central America area was Mexico City (Mexico), the first session in Oceania was Sydney (Australia). Also seminars took place in Vladivostok (Russia), Hanoi and Hochiminh (Vietnam), and Dalian (China).

Besides, NACCS held numerous seminars in Japan in cooperation with Japan Customs and Service Providers. Total number of domestic and overseas session participants is over 8,000.

Lastly, total number of Reporter ID issuance on Japan AFR exceeds 4,500 as of 19th Feb and we see high increase in the number of issuance as the implementation of the rules approaches.
