

Appendix Table 6.7 Subjected Procedure List

Users and output destination column

- indicates that only NACCS EDI Standards are compatible.
- indicates that both EDIFACT Standards and NACCS EDI Standards are compatible.
- indicates the procedure is compatible with EDIFACT Standards, however, timing of introduction has not been determined and the procedure is compatible with NACCS EDI Standards.

ebMS processing mode compatibility column

- indicates the procedure can be carried out through ebMS processing mode.

WebNACCS compatibility column

- indicates the procedure can be carried out through WebNACCS.

EDIFACT (input) (output) enable/disable column

- ⊙ indicates the procedure (output information) is compatible with EDIFACT Standards.
- △ indicates the procedure (output information) is compatible with EDIFACT Standards, however, the timing of introduction has not been determined.

EDIFACT applied message column

Message name	Content
CUSDEC (Customs declaration message)	Import/export declaration, etc.
CUSRES (Customs response message)	Notification, etc. of permission and approval, etc. for declaration issued by Customs
CUSREP (Customs conveyance report message)	General Declaration, etc.
CUSCAR (Customs cargo report message)	Cargo Manifest, etc.
PAXLST (Passenger list message)	Passenger and crew list
CODECO (Container gate-in/gate-out report message)	Confirmation, etc. of CY carry-out and carry-in of containers
COPARN (Container announcement message)	Notification, etc. of scheduled taking of containers
IFTMIN (Instruction message)	Shipping instruction, etc.

XML (input) (output) enable/disable column

- indicates the procedure (output information) is compatible with XML.

XML applied message column

Message name	Content
PAA (Pan Asian e-commerce Alliance Standard / Superset Message Structure V2.0)	Importer/exporter related procedures, etc.

Re-sending prevention column (function only effective for software package users)

- indicates the message is specified for re-sending. However, when a processing result notification becomes error, this is not specified.
- indicates the message where re-sending prevention is specified when there is no subsequent information in list inquiry procedure, etc.
- △ indicates the message where re-sending prevention is specified in the case of special conditions such as Warning Message.